Terms & Conditions

Humanology & Health Science, Inc.

1. Introduction & Agreement
Participation in White Tantric Yoga® ("WTY") workshops is subject to the following Terms & Conditions ("T&Cs"). By registering for a WTY workshop, you agree to comply with these T&Cs, the White Tantric Yoga Release of Liability, the White Tantric Yoga Child Participation Policy, and any additional guidelines communicated by Humanology & Health Science, Inc. ("H&HS").

2. Eligibility & Participation
Participants must be at least 18 years of age, unless otherwise permitted under the Child Participation Policy.

Children under the age of 9 are not permitted to attend under any circumstances. A child between the ages of 9 to 12 years old may only participate if they fully meet the requirements outlined in the Child Participation Policy.

H&HS reserves the right to remove any participant, including children and their parent/guardian, if their behavior disrupts the workshop or impacts the group experience.

3. Service Animals
Humanology & Health Science, Inc. ("H&HS") complies with applicable laws regarding service animals. Only dogs that qualify as service animals under applicable disability laws are permitted at White Tantric Yoga workshops. Emotional support animals, therapy animals, or pets are not permitted.

A service dog must remain under the handler's control at all times, either by leash, harness, or tether, unless such devices interfere with the service dog's work or the participant's disability prevents their use. In such cases, the handler must maintain effective control of the dog through voice, signal, or other controls. The service animal must sit behind their handler not within the Tantric line, not on the handler's lap or in between the handler and their partner.

The handler is solely responsible for the care and supervision of the service dog, including feeding, toileting, and cleaning up after the dog.

A service dog must be housebroken and may not engage in disruptive behavior, including but not limited to barking (except as a trained alert), growling, lunging, or otherwise interfering with other participants, facilitators, or the orderly conduct of the workshop.

Service dogs must remain under control at all times. If a service dog barks, acts aggressively, or otherwise disrupts the workshop, the participant and the dog may be asked to leave. In such cases, H&HS may, at its discretion, permit the handler to remain at the workshop without the animal.

Only certified service dogs, as defined under applicable law, are permitted.

4. Registration & Payment
Registration is confirmed when registration is done online. The Payment is on door.

Workshop registrations are non-transferable unless expressly approved by H&HS.

Registrations may close prior to the event if capacity is reached.

5. Cancellations & Refunds
Cancellation policies, including refunds or credits, will be stated on the registration page of each workshop.

H&HS reserves the right to cancel or reschedule a workshop due to unforeseen circumstances, including but not limited to insufficient enrollment, facilitator availability, or government regulations.

6. Code of Conduct
Participants are expected to behave respectfully toward other participants, facilitators, staff, and translators.

No photography, video, or audio recording is permitted without prior written consent from H&HS.

H&HS reserves the right to refuse service or remove any participant whose behavior is disruptive, inappropriate, or interferes with the integrity of the workshop.

7. Child Participation Policy
Children under the age of 9 are not permitted.

9-12 year-old children may only attend if they meet strict eligibility requirements, including the ability to remain still and engaged throughout all meditations.

If a child disrupts the workshop, the facilitator or organizer will require the child and their parent/guardian to leave the meditation space.

The complete Child Participation Policy is incorporated by reference into these T&Cs and is available electronically.

8. Release of Liability
Participation in WTY workshops requires acceptance of the White Tantric Yoga Release of Liability.

The Release of Liability is a separate agreement and must be signed at the time of registration.

No individual may participate in a WTY workshop without completing the Release of Liability.

9. Intellectual Property
All oral and written presentations, materials, and recordings at WTY workshops are the intellectual property of H&HS.

No part may be reproduced, transmitted, or distributed without prior written consent.

10. Data & Privacy
Participant information is collected solely for the purpose of workshop administration.

Data will be handled in accordance with applicable privacy laws.

11. Governing Law
